Dear

I will be most happy to meet with you and your colleagues of the American Business Conference at your 9 March meeting held at the Four Seasons Hotel. The U.S. Intelligence Community believes the support of businessmen such as yourself is both necessary and desired, and I welcome your assistance. As an individual who over the years has been involved in the business community, I have learned first-hand the merits of our free enterprise system.

Thank you again for the invitation. I will have someone from my Public Affairs staff contact you in the near future to make the necessary arrangements.

Sincerely,

/s/ William J. Casey
